

Loving-Kindness Writing Meditation

This writing meditation will help you transform your relationships by enabling you to be more kind and loving without any conscious effort. It does this by reprogramming your subconscious in a way that is much more effective than simply reading, hearing, or reciting the affirmations.

The exercise will help you heal the wounds from your past, as you will become more forgiving, understanding, and compassionate. It will also help you become more sociable and outgoing. But its greatest benefit will be in speeding up your spiritual development, because you'll be able to connect with people on a much deeper level. This will provide you with the spiritual nourishment you need to grow.

Instructions

Simply copy the following verses by hand in a notebook or journal, every day for about 10-15 minutes. Any time of the day is fine. However, if you do it in the morning, it will set the tone for your day. When done in the evening, you will sleep much better. You don't have to do the whole meditation in one session. It doesn't matter how far you get each time. Simply write for a few minutes every day. Then the next day, pick up where you left off.

After a few days, notice how your thinking and behavior are changing. It's important to do the exercise consistently. The practice is most effective if it's done every day for several months, along with the mindfulness meditation practice.

I hope you enjoy this writing meditation, and that it transforms your life the way it has transformed mine.

Warm regards,

Charles A. Francis
